IN
WRIT PETITION NO.2762 OF 2004

Tata Consulting Engineers &
Associates Staff Union ....Appellant
V/s.
TCE Consulting Engineers Ltd. & Anr. ....Respondents

Mr.N.M. Ganguli for the Appellant.
Mr.M.D. Naik for the Respondents.

CORAM : DR.S. RADHAKRISHNAN &
S.J. VAZIFDAR, JJ.
DATED : 18TH APRIL, 2006.

P.C. :

1. Heard the learned counsel for the Appellant and the Respondents.

2. By this Appeal, the Appellant is challenging the order dated 25.10.2004 passed by the learned single Judge whereby the learned single Judge had allowed the Petition filed by the Respondent - employer.

3. We have perused the reasonings of the learned single Judge. In fact there is no dispute that the settlement has been accepted. It appears that there is some mistake with regard to fitment pertaining to four employees. However, we do not find any error or illegality in the aforesaid judgment, hence the Appeal stands dismissed.

4. Mr.Naik, the learned advocate for the Respondents as well as Mr.Ganguli, the learned advocate for the Appellant state that they would be filing a joint reference with regard to the aforesaid issue of fitment of four workmen within a period of four weeks from today. If such an application is made within a period of four weeks from today, the State Government, being the appropriate authority, shall pass an order on the said application within a period of eight weeks thereafter, if the reference is made, the said reference shall be expeditiously decided by the appropriate forum.
